

COPYRIGHT RELEASE

The Berkeley Linguistics Society is pleased to have the opportunity to publish your contribution in the work entitled Proceedings of the Thirty-Fourth Annual Meeting of the Berkeley Linguistics Society.

As a condition of publication, it is essential that you grant us copyright to your contribution. After publication of the work, and upon written request, the Berkeley Linguistics Society, Inc. will grant you permission to republish your contribution in any scholarly or professional journal, subject only to your giving proper credit in the journal to prior publication in the present work.

The following terms of publication are accordingly submitted for your consideration:

Assignments of rights:

I, _____, (co-)author of the work entitled _____ hereby assign to the Berkeley Linguistics Society, Inc. all right, title, and interest in said article.

Previous Publication:

The author guarantees that the material included in his/her contribution has not been previously published in whole or in substantial part, or that he/she has obtained an assignment of copyright to the Berkeley Linguistics Society, Inc., and that such assignment shall be submitted with the author's manuscript.

Compensation:

The author will receive no royalty or other monetary returns from the Berkeley Linguistics Society, Inc. for the use of the material. The author may purchase one (1) copy of the published work at 50% discount from the list price.

If the foregoing terms are acceptable to you, please fill in your name and the title of the article above, sign and date the agreement and return it to BLS at the address above. (You may want to make a second copy for your records.)

Signature: _____ Date: _____

(separate copyright releases must be executed by each co-author)