

Sentences for introductions and relatives

(substitute underlined words with vocabulary from page 2)

Hûut íthvuuuytih?
What is your name?

Pananíthvuy uum _____.
My name is _____.

Páy uum pananítaat.
This is my mother.

Páy uum pananífyiiv, Florraine.
This is my friend, Florraine.

Akâay uum pami'ávan?
Who is your husband?

Múthvuy uum _____.
His name is _____.

Akâay uum mi'áraaras?
Who are your relatives?

Kahtíshraam húm aramsîiprintih?
Are you from Yreka?

Hãã, Kahtíshraam ni'aramsîiprintih.
Yes, I'm from Yreka.

Pûuhara, Panámniiik ni'aramsîiprintih.
No, I'm from Orleans.

Pi'êep xára xás tanúp mah!
It's been a long time!

Hûut kích iim?
How've you been?

Vúra yav.
Good.

Yéeshiip.
Very good.

Hûut kích pami'ákah?
How is your father?

Vúra uum yav.
He's/she's good.

(Pananitípa) vúra kâarim upmahóonkoonatih.
(My brother's) feeling bad.

Hûut kích pami'túnviiv?
How are your children?

Koovúra pa'axiitichas vúra yav.
All the kids are good.

Yáv kunipmahóonkoonatih.
They're feeling good.

Possessives

my	nani-/nini-	our	nanu-/nunu-
your (sg.)	mi-	your (pl.)	mikun-
his/her	mu-	their	mukun-

Common relation words

husband	ávan
wife	ihrôoha
mother	táat
father	ákah
brother/male cousin	típah
sister/female cousin	kústaan
child	axiich
kids (diminutive)	axíitichas
friend	afyiiv

my child	nani'aramah	this word has to be used with a possessive
my children	nanitúnviiv	this word has to be used with a possessive
my little girl	naniyeenipaxvúhich
my (bigger) girl	naniyeeripáxvuh
my little boy	nani'avansáxiich
my relatives	nani'áaraar(as)

Other relation words

maternal grandmother	kîit	granddaughter (through daughter)	kîit
maternal grandfather	kúut	grandson (through daughter)	kúut
paternal grandparent	átish	grandchild (through son)	átish
aunt (mother's sister)	thúxath
aunt (father's sister)	míith
uncle (mother's brother)	xúkam
uncle (father's brother)	párah
older brother/male cousin	árih
older sister/female cousin	nánach
younger brother/male cousin	cháas
younger sister/female cousin	chíish
father-in-law	fíkvaan
mother-in-law	faratípish
brother-in-law (for man)	êer
sister-in-law (for woman)	úut
son-in-law	íkam
daughter-in-law	íram

Sentences for serving food

(substitute underlined words with vocabulary from page 2)

Tá ávahiv!

It's time to eat!

Tée xúriha hum?
Are you hungry?

Hãã, vúra kúnish tá naxúriha.
Yes, I'm sort of hungry.

Hãã, vúra uum puxích tá naxúriha.
Yes, I'm really hungry.

Íshaha húm téé xrah?
Are you thirsty?

Hãã, vúra kúnish tá néexrah.
Yes, I'm sort of thirsty.

Hãã, vúra uum puxích tá néexrah.
Yes, I'm really thirsty.

Fâat i'áveesh?
What do you want to eat?
(What are you going to eat?)

Naa chikín'iish ni'áveesh.
I'm going to eat chicken.

Fâat ixúti áveesh?
What are you thinking (you want) to eat?

Fâat uum pay?
What is that?

Fâat ivíshtaanti musmús'iish káru nakísh'iish?
Fâat i'áveesh musmús'iish káru nakísh'iish?
Would you like beef or pork?

Naa musmús'iish nivíshtaantih.
I want/like beef.

Sára húm i'áveesh?
Would you like (to eat) bread?

Hãã, sára ni'áveesh.
Yes, I'm going to eat bread.

Úchish húm i'ísheesh?
Would you like (to drink) milk?

Pûuhara, íshaha ni'ísheesh.
No, I'm going to drink water.

Ápus húm i'áveesh?
Do you want an apple?

Xanáchyuh húm ivíshtaantih?
Do you like onions?

Máh páy pasára.
Take some bread.

Axák pasára ni'êechipreevish.
I'll take two (pieces of) bread.

Hôoy pasára?
Where's the bread?

Máh pay'ôok pasára.
Here's the bread.

Hôoy pamisíkih?
Where's your spoon?

Tâak payúfish!
Hand me the salt!

Food vocabulary

bread	sára
beef	musmús'iish
pork	nakísh'iish
chicken	chikín'iish
turkey	takíh'iish
salmon	áama
egg	úruh
cheese	chíish
tomato	tuméetus
onion	xanáchyuh

water	íshaha
milk	úchish
apple juice	apus'íshaha
grape juice	ay'íshaha

apple	ápus
grape	aay
berry	uxraah
strawberry	uxnáhich
raspberry	patúruupveen
blackberry	ataychúrip
cherry	puun
cake	kêek(s)

salt	yúfish
pepper	apman'ikrixúpxup

plate	imváram
spoon	síkih
fork	ikrupkáanvar
knife	símsiim
napkin	apmanthivxúyxur