

Summary of Facebook postings by Berkeley Karuk group, November 22-30, 2015

Ayukîi koovúra! We are finishing up November with a few more body terms and some practical language for serving a meal and cold weather.

November 22 No post

November 23

From the dictionary:

nêev • armpit

November 24

From the dictionary:

iishkôor • naked

iish = flesh

-koo = so much

-(a)ra = characterized by

November 25:

From the dictionary:

íish • meat, flesh, body

Vina upiip:

Kári iish úpaatvutih pa'axiich. • And the child is taking a bath.

kari = and

iish = body

u- = he or she

paatvu = to wash or bathe

-tih = ongoing

pa- = the

'axiich = child

November 26

Vina upiip:

tá ávahiv. • It's time to eat.

tá = has done or be in a state

áv = to eat

-ahiv = occasion/time

November 27 No post

November 28 No post

November 29 No post

November 30

Lucille upiip:

áthiik îikam. • It's cold outside.

áthiik = cold, cold weather

îikam = outside