Gift Agreement

I, _____, herewith give to the Regents of the University of California, for the uses and purposes of the Berkeley language archives (including the Survey of California and Other Indian Languages, the California Language Archive, and the Berkeley Language Center), the following materials:

I state that I am the owner of the materials described above, or that I have the right to deposit them, and that I am in a position to make a formal agreement with the Regents of the University of California in relation to them. I agree that these materials may be made available to users of the Berkeley language archives (in person or by remote computer access) for research, language education, linguistic and cultural revitalization, and other non-commercial purposes, according to the established procedures of the Berkeley language archives, except as specified in any amendment to this agreement. I agree that persons given access to these materials may make copies or arrange to have copies made for the same non-commercial purposes. I understand that I retain the right to distribute and publish these materials and incorporate them in whole or in part into other works. I agree to keep my contact details up to date, and understand that, if I am not contactable, the director of the language archive will make decisions about management of and access to materials, considering the nature of the materials and the interests of the language community.

Check this box if an amendment is attached to this agreement.
